Guidelines for Paper Submission

The manuscripts submitted to The Journal of Nepalese Business Studies must be original works that have not been previously published and are not being considered elsewhere for publication. Any accepted paper for publication should not be published anywhere without the explicit permission of the Editorial Board. All submitted papers will undergo a double-blind review process and will subsequently be subject to approval by the Editorial Board.

However, the ideas and opinions expressed in the papers published in the Journal of Nepalese Business Studies are the sole responsibility of the respective authors and do not necessarily reflect the views and policies of the Faculty of Management and the Editorial Board. Authors submitting papers are required to adhere to the following guidelines:

- 1. Manuscripts should be written in English.
- 2. Submissions must be in a single Microsoft Word file, with embedded tables and figures (graphs). Tables and figures should be numbered with Arabic numerals and accompanied by captions. Please ensure that each table or figure is referenced in the text. If tables or figures require landscape orientation, place them on separate pages at the end of the paper. Authors must obtain permission from the original source owners for any materials included in their articles.
- 3. Manuscripts should have a minimum of 4,000 words and should not exceed 7,000 words. The text should be single-spaced on A4 size paper, using Times New Roman 12-point font.
- 4. Papers should maintain a consistent style throughout, especially when different authors have contributed sections. All submissions must include scholarly citations in APA (7th edition) style. The following components should be included in all papers submitted for publication:
- Title
- Author's information (name, position, affiliation, address, email address; specify the corresponding author if the article is co-authored)
- Abstract (not exceeding 250 words)
- Keywords (up to five words or phrases)
- Main headings (sub-headings are optional; include an introduction, body with multiple headings, and conclusion)
- Acknowledgements (if applicable)
- References
- Appendices (if applicable)

- 5. All submissions must include a cover page containing the article title, the author's name and affiliation, and an abstract with keywords. The author's name should not appear anywhere else in the text.
- 6. All submissions will undergo a double-blind review process by two reviewers to assess their compliance with the required criteria.
- 7. Plagiarism, presenting another person's ideas as one's own, and copyright infringement and unauthorized copying, are strictly prohibited. Authors are responsible for ensuring ethical conduct, including avoiding plagiarism and copyright infringement, in both their submitted and published articles. Any articles found to be plagiarized will be directly rejected without review. Authors must also agree to the journal's copyright authorization terms and conditions when submitting the final version of their articles.
- 8. Authors must disclose conflicts of interest if they have any.
- 9. Submissions that do not adhere to the above guidelines will be rejected without review and returned to the respective author(s).
- 10. In case of any dispute regarding manuscript selection for publication, the editorial board's decision will be final. Authors should email their manuscripts to:
